

Friends try to aid Rachel Corrie, 23, from Olympia, Wash., a member of the "International Solidarity Movement," in the southern Gaza Strip town of Rafah Sunday, March 16, 2003, after she was run over by an Israeli army bulldozer. Corrie died Sunday in Gaza while trying to stop a bulldozer from tearing down a Palestinian physician's home. She fell in front of the machine, which ran over her and then backed up, witnesses said. (AP Photo/HO, International Solidarity Movement)